

Belgian–Brazilian Academic Association

Bridging Knowledge Between Belgium and Brazil

AABB is a volunteer-driven, apolitical academic network connecting Brazilian and Belgian researchers, students, and professionals.

Our mission is to foster scientific, educational, and cultural collaboration across borders, creating a dynamic and interdisciplinary community.

Join Our Community

Are you a Brazilian or Belgian interested in science, collaboration, and networking?

Connect with us and become part of a growing international academic network.

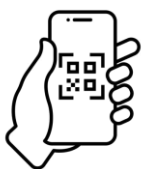

Get Involved

Join our online and in-person activities throughout the year, including seminars, networking events, cultural initiatives, and our Annual Meeting.

Stay connected through our website and social media channels to discover upcoming events, opportunities, and ways to engage with the Belgian–Brazilian academic community.

Stay Connected

Scan the QR codes to connect with us and stay up to date with our latest news, events, and opportunities.

Website <https://aabbav.github.io>

LinkedIn: AABB

IG: @academia.belgobr

We are a member of Rede Sabiá, a network for the Brazilian diaspora working in education, science, technology, and innovation.

✉ aabbav.info@gmail.com